

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION I

From Classroom to Community 3

Dorothy and Earl 5

CHAPTER I: The Articles by Purpose 9

CONNECTING TO ISSUES 10

a. Catalyst Materials 11

Illustrations 12

School and Home 12

Quizzes And Surveys 14

Quiz: Immigrants and the Economy 14

Immigration Myths and Facts 15

Charts and Graphs 17

Poverty and the Minimum Wage 17

Community Research 19

Community Economics 20

Activity: Money Mapping 21

Poetry 22

Tires Stacked in the Hallways of Civilization 23

Environmental Print 25

The Neighborhood Where We Work 25

b. Personal stories 27

My Life Story 28

When I Go Home I'm Going to Talk Indian 31

Love for People and for Education: An Interview with Klare Allen 33

Educación de Adultos: The Perspective of a Latina 36

Drawing to Write: A Look at Our Childhood Houses 39

c. Academic Skill-Building 41

Math

Mathematics and Housing 42

Creating Charts and Graphs 44

What Countries Are in Your Closet? 45

Media Literacy

Talk Back to Your TV! Teach Your Children to Question What They Watch 47

How to Detect Bias in News Media 50

Editorial Cartoon Analysis 52

Comparing the Media at Home and Here 53

Using Three Excerpts from Deadly Persuasion by Jean Kilbourne 54

Reading and Writing

Teaching Standard English: Whose Standard? 57

Deconstructing Euphemisms: A Lesson Plan 59

Whose Point of View? Two Classroom Approaches 61

Four Effects of Viewing Media Violence 63

Getting the Facts about Homelessness 66

ANALYZING ISSUES 69

America's Health Care Crisis 71

Welfare "Reform" Violates Poor People's Human Rights 74

High Rise in Housing: The Sky's No Limit 78

Students for Sale: How Corporations Are Buying Their Way into America's Classrooms 81

Income Inequality: Bad for Your Health 84

The Voucher Argument 86

Does Putting People in Jail Cause More Crime?

An Interview with James Gilligan 88

You Are What You Eat: Learning about the Food System 93

Voting Rights 99

SUPPORTING STUDENT ACTION 103

Questions: A Powerful Tool for Self-Advocacy 104

Student Activism at Dorcas Place 107

Persistence Pays Off: Enrique Helps Draft a Law to Protect Low-Literacy Workers 110

Step One: Talking Things Out 112

Anti-Violence Program at Operation Bootstrap 115

Working Toward Critical Literacy, Community Development, and Social Action 118

CHAPTER 2: Building Thematic Units 121

Thematic Unit Planning Form 122

TAXES (ESL) 123

What Do You Think? Agree/Disagree Activity 126

If You Don't Like Paying Taxes... 127

Are Taxes Fair? 128

Tax Cuts: Who Do They Help? 129

How Would You Spend the Federal Tax Dollars? 131

IMMIGRATION (ASE/GED) 134

Reclaiming America 136

Who Are You Calling an Immigrant? 137

Who Benefits from Globalization? 140

Dagoberto Garcia's Story 143

Striving Women 145

The Dilemma of Citizenship 146

WORK AND THE ECONOMY (ABE) 148

Work Histories 150

Today's Economic Climate 152

How Has Your Real Hourly Wage Changed Over the Years? 154

The Ethics of Work 156

What Is Your Idea of a Good Job? 158

Union Tries to Strike a Balance 159

CHAPTER 3: Dealing With Difficult Issues 163

It's a Beginning 164

Homophobia in the Classroom: One Teacher's Response 166

Teaching to Unlearn Racism: A White Perspective 169

Personal Cultural History Exercise 172

Responding to Disclosures of Abuse in Women's Lives:
A Guide for Teachers of Literacy 173

Violence Behind the Wall 176

Acting Out 177

Feeding Our Whole Selves in the Literacy Classroom 179

INDEX: Topics and Skills 183