Talk about what you see above. What do you have in common with this family?

Help this family. In addition to looking to each other for solutions, where else can they seek support outside the family?

Find out about Common Security Clubs <www.commonsecurity.org>—a way of coming together to help each other.

Should society be doing anything to support this family? If so, what?