We and They

Lucille Clifton

Boris and Yuki and Sarah and Sue and Karl and Latanya, Maria too dreamed of the world and it was spinning and all the people just talked about winning the wind was burning the water was churning the trees were bending Something was ending and all the talk was “we” and “they” the children all hugged themselves waiting for the day when the night of the long bad dream is done and all the family of humans are one and being and winning are not the same and “we” and “they” is just a game and the wind is a friend that doesn’t fuss and every They is actually Us.

“We and They” and You!

Why is we/they so appealing?

What “we’s” and “they’s” do you see in your community?

What is your response to George Bush’s remarks to Congress on September 20, 2001: “Either you are with us, or you are with the terrorists.”
